Steven Krueger Elected Treasurer of State Bar of Wisconsin

Key Highlights:

- Steven Krueger elected State Bar treasurer after tight statewide race
- Green Bay attorney joins key leadership board serving 25,000+ Wisconsin lawyers

GREEN BAY, Wis. (May 16, 2025) — Attorney Steven \(Steve\) J. Krueger of the Law Firm of Conway, Olejniczak & Jerry, S.C. was recently elected treasurer of the State Bar of Wisconsin following a closely contested statewide race.

As treasurer, Krueger will help manage the financial oversight of the State Bar, a professional association serving more than 25,000 attorneys licensed in Wisconsin. The role involves careful stewardship of member dues and earned revenue, ensuring the responsible use of funds in support of legal education, public services and the advancement of the justice system.

Krueger's election places him on the State Bar's 53-member Board of Governors, which directs the association's operations and long-term strategy. The board represents a wide range of legal professionals across the state, including elected district members, division appointees and Supreme Court-selected public members.

Originally from Waupun, Krueger has built his legal career on a foundation of real-world experience and focuses on common-sense, client-focused solutions. He earned both his undergraduate and law degrees from Marquette University. He now focuses his legal practice on representing a broad range of clients on general business matters, real estate, collections and creditor/debtor law.

Krueger is also deeply committed to giving back, actively supporting charitable and civic organizations throughout the Green Bay area.
