Prevea welcomes critical care and pulmonary medicine physician, Dr. Jeremy Renz
Now caring for patients in Green Bay

GREEN BAY, Wis. – Prevea Health is pleased to welcome Dr. Jeremy Renz, a board-certified and fellowship-trained critical care and pulmonary medicine physician now caring for patients at the Prevea Allouez Health Center, located at 1821 S. Webster Ave., Green Bay.

As a critical care and pulmonary medicine physician, Dr. Renz specializes in treating patients with serious illnesses and breathing issues. His key services include adult critical care medicine; diagnosis and staging of lung cancer; diagnosis and treatment of chronic obstructive pulmonary disease (COPD) including asthma; interstitial lung disease; pulmonary hypertension; occupational lung disease; sarcoidosis; and pleural disease. He also provides advanced pulmonary diagnostics including endobronchial ultrasound (EBUS); navigational bronchoscopy; transbronchial biopsy; brush biopsy; bronchoalveolar lavage; bronchial washing and transbronchial needle biopsy.

Dr. Renz provides care for critical care patients at Prevea Health’s partner hospitals in Green Bay, HSHS St. Vincent Hospital and HSHS St. Mary's Hospital Medical Center.

“I believe patient care should be focused on as a team effort from all disciplines in the hospital, including the patient and the patient’s family,” said Dr. Renz. “That is why listening to each patient and their family is necessary to understand their fears, goals, and knowledge of the situation to help promote positive healing and optimize the full body therapeutic process.”

Dr. Renz earned his medical degree at Marian University College of Osteopathic Medicine. He completed residency in internal medicine at The Christ Hospital and achieved fellowship-training in pulmonary and critical care medicine at Parkview Medical Center. Dr. Renz is certified by the American Board of Internal Medicine in internal medicine and pulmonary disease.

Appointments with Dr. Renz at the Prevea Allouez Health Center in Green Bay can be scheduled by calling (920) 272-1240.
