Prevea Health pediatrician to answer infant care questions

Virtual presentation on April 26 will offer parenting tips for newborns

Northeast Wisconsin – Welcoming a child into the world is a life-changing experience that presents different challenges and questions for all parents. Regardless of whether you are a first-time parent, or it has been a few years since a baby was in your home, Prevea Pediatricians can help by answering and addressing your infant care questions.

Tuesday, April 26 at 6 p.m., Dr. Shilpa Ullikashi, pediatrician at Prevea St. Mary’s Health Center in Green Bay, will host a Zoom presentation to share parenting tips and what to expect in the first several months of a baby’s life. Topics presented will include:

- Newborn characteristics and skin conditions
- Medications, taking baby’s temperature and when to call the doctor
- Swaddling
- Skin-to-skin
- Feeding baby - patterns, how much, growth spurts, burping, when to start solids, etc.
- Sleeping - napping, how much, schedules, etc.
- What your baby’s cries mean – causes of crying and comforting baby
- Cleaning baby
- Crawling, walking and other milestones
- The importance of play
