

Fritsch Equipment Finalizes Exclusive North American Partnership with Condon Engineering

**For immediate release****

June 11, 2024 – De Pere, WI – Fritsch Equipment and Services LLC is thrilled to announce a new agreement with Ireland-based Condon Engineering, making Fritsch Equipment the sole North American distributor of Condon’s innovative product line. This partnership brings together two farmer-founded and operated companies, each with a deep commitment to quality and customer service.

Condon Engineering has a long-standing reputation in the Irish agriculture industry and is expanding its influence across Europe and the United States. Condon specializes in designing, manufacturing, and supplying top-tier agricultural and industrial products. This perfectly complements Fritsch Equipment’s mission to deliver exceptional value and service to its customers.

“We are incredibly excited to embark on this journey with Condon Engineering,” said Alex Dollevoet, Vice President of Fritsch Equipment. “They are a great organization that really cares about their customers and partners. Condon brings a level of expertise in their field that will allow Fritsch Equipment and Services LLC to provide even more value and service to our customers.”

Graham Condon, Business Development Manager at Condon Engineering, echoed this enthusiasm: “Condon Engineering is excited and proud to be forming this new partnership. We are eager to develop a long and prosperous relationship with Fritsch Equipment. We believe Fritsch and Condon's experience and core values will combine successfully.”

This partnership marks a significant milestone for Fritsch Equipment, promising enhanced product offerings and a reinforced commitment to customer satisfaction. Stay tuned for more updates as Fritsch and Condon collaborate to bring innovative solutions to the North American market.
