This Saturday at the NEW Zoo & Adventure Park

The NEW Zoo & Adventure Park invites you to stop out for sweet treats and fun this Saturday, July 27th. Because one month isn't enough time to celebrate dairy in Wisconsin, Brown County Farm Bureau and Young Farmer and Agriculturist (YFA) will be giving away delicious dairy treats in celebration of July as National Ice Cream Month! In addition to free ice cream for guests while supplies last, YFA will also be hosting fun, agricultural activities for kids. All activities are free with regular zoo admission.

For additional fun and the chance to get up-close and personal with animals, you can purchase tickets for our Pelican, Otter, and Penguin Feeding Experiences online, or consider a selection of Wild Encounter programs that are available throughout the summer. The Giraffe Feeding Experience and Children's Zoo Feeding Experience are also both open daily, with no reservations required to participate in either.

Questions about this event can be directed to Barbara Basten, Zoo Operations Manager via email or phone at 920-662-240.
