

Member Spotlight – Unity Hospice Grief and Education Center

Unity Grief and Education Center, located at 2079 Lawrence Drive in De Pere.

Individual Counseling Room

Teen/Family Room

Grief is a part of life and having a space that is not only comfortable but also makes someone feel not alone is very important. Unity Grief and Education at Unity Hospice provides grief support tailored to all ages and offers a variety of resources to the community, such as in-person and over-the-phone counseling, grief groups to connect with others, family group counseling, and 'healing through the arts' programs.

The Unity Grief and Education Center is a pillar in Northeast Wisconsin for those who feel they have nowhere else to turn. People look to Unity for its expertise and the many helpful programs it offers. Unity takes pride in connecting those who are grieving with each other, so they know they are not alone. Jenny Boeckman, Grief Services Director at the Unity Grief and Education Center, states: "We know that after death many people are impacted by that grief, and we find it helpful to have a place they know they aren't alone and can connect with others going through the same thing."

The Center offers different types of support free of charge to those in need while recognizing that everyone grieves in their own way, allowing individuals and families to choose which program works best for their needs. The Center has a specialized team of licensed counselors, social workers, and trained volunteers. Services are offered in-person, virtually, or by phone and are for:

- Individual grief counseling
- Family grief counseling
- Grief support groups
- Supportive telephone calls
- Memorial events and literature

The most popular programs are the six-week grief group for adults, the grief group for families with children, and the healing through the arts group which gives a chance to deal with grief through the creative arts. Annual events include Luminary Walk at Heritage Hill State Park, Gathering of Remembrance at Green Bay Botanical Gardens, and Honor A Life Holiday

Gathering at the National Railroad Museum.

The Greater Green Bay community is invited to a grand opening celebration at the Unity Grief and Education Center on Thursday, Aug. 25. From 3 to 7 p.m., attendees will enjoy 15-minute guided tours, refreshments, and a chance to win a gift basket valued at over $100.

"People who are grieving often feel there is nowhere for them to turn, this new space will help them and give them a place to go to reach out for support," says Boeckman. The Unity Grief and Education Center is a warm place for those dealing with a loss, allowing them to feel welcomed in a compassionate place that is geared toward them. Generous donations allow Unity to offer compassionate grief support at no charge to the community.
