

Member Spotlight – Green Bay Country Club

Green Bay Country Club's $8 million renovation project completed

Green Bay, Wis.— Green Bay Country Club (GBCC) is turning heads with an $8 million renovation of their two clubhouses. The private country club celebrated with a Grand Opening Event on June 11th.

The project, which focused on major upgrades and expansion of both the Main Clubhouse and the Sports Center, provides members and guests with an upscale yet relaxed atmosphere unlike anywhere else in Northeast Wisconsin.

Miron Construction Co., Inc., the official provider of construction services for the Green Bay Packers and Lambeau Field, served as the general contractor. Eppstein Uhen Architects (EUA), designer of the Milwaukee Bucks' Fiserv Forum, served as the architect.

The renovation adds to Green Bay's growing reputation as a top place to live in the United States.

Jerry Geiger, general manager of the Green Bay Country Club, commented that calls from people interested in relocating to Green Bay have risen the past several years.

"Fifty percent of our incoming members have moved to the area within the past two years," commented Geiger. "A country club of this caliber is important in the recruitment of high-level talent to our area."

About Green Bay Country Club

Green Bay Country Club, established in 1995, is a private club that seeks to provide a spectacular golf, racquets, swim, and dining experience for members, staff, and guests. The cornerstone of the club is a nationally recognized 18-hole course, designed by Dick Nugent. Green Bay Country Club is member-owned and operated; all regular members have voting privileges. An elected Board of Directors, composed of members, sets, maintains and enforces standards of excellence.
