

Media Advisory: Packers Hall of Famer Mark Tauscher, TDS Telecom to kick off Tausch's Cooking Camp to Tackle Hunger

GREEN BAY, Wisconsin –Green Bay Packers Hall of Famer and former Wisconsin Badger offensive lineman Mark Tauscher is partnering with TDS Telecommunications, FoodWise, and Feeding America Eastern Wisconsin on a first of its kind cooking camp. Tausch's Cooking Camp to Tackle Hunger is a new initiative to promote nutritional literacy and cooking skills for Boys and Girls Club members in Green Bay, Menasha and Appleton.

The media is invited to the launch of the eight-week program in Green Bay on Thursday, March 6.

- WHAT: Tausch's Cooking Camp to Tackle Hunger launch event
- WHO: Mark and Sarah Tauscher
Brown County Executive Troy Streckenbach
Boys and Girls Club representatives
FoodWise leaders
TDS Telecom officials
Feeding America Eastern Wisconsin
- WHEN: 3:00 p.m. Thursday, March 6
- WHERE: Boys and Girls Club of Greater Green Bay – Nagel Unit
311 S. Oneida St.

The event will feature Mark and Sarah Tauscher discussing the program, demonstrations by the Boys and Girls Club, and Brown County Executive Troy Streckenbach with a proclamation on National Nutrition Month. The media availability comes before the start of the first class of the eight-week program.

Media interested in attending the launch of the event, or for further questions, should contact Mark Schaaf at mark.schaaf@tdstelecom.com.