OSMS Recognized as One of America's Best Surgery Centers Two Years in a Row

GREEN BAY, WI (December 30, 2024) - Orthopedic & Sports Medicine Specialists (OSMS) Orthopedic Surgery Center of Green Bay (OSCGB) was recognized for the second consecutive year as one of America's Best Ambulatory Surgery Centers 2025 by Newsweek and Statista.

In 2024, America's Best Ambulatory Surgery Centers (ASCs) acknowledged the leading 550 ASCs in the U.S. For 2025, they acknowledged the leading 650 ASCs in the country. Out of nine ASCs to have received this recognition in Wisconsin, OSCGB is the only ASC to have earned this recognition in the Green Bay area.

The criteria in which an ASC is deemed as the Best in America, is based on quality of care, patient experience, performance data, and peer recommendations relative to in-state competition.

Not only does OSMS have a 98% patient satisfaction rating, but additionally, OSMS surgery centers have an impressively low post-operative infection rate of 0.15%. OSMS' post-operative infection rate is 6 times lower than the average ASC post-operative infection rate and 15 times lower than the average hospital post-operative infection rate.

"This recognition is a direct correlation to our team's dedication and commitment to delivering top-notch medical care and exceptional experiences to each of our patients throughout their entire medical journey with us," explains Amanda Sosnosky, ASC Administrator at OSMS. "Our highly skilled and experienced medical professionals are passionate about following the highest safety standards so that patients can recover quickly and safely return to doing the things they love."

Procedures and surgeries performed at Orthopedic Surgery Center of Green Bay include but is not limited to total joint replacements of the shoulder, hip, and knee, partial joint replacements, arthroscopy (scopes), ACL reconstruction, collarbone surgery, Achilles tendon repair, hand, wrist, and elbow surgeries, and foot and ankle surgeries.
